Call to Worship

Leader: To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

People: O my God, in you I trust; do not let me be put to shame;
do not let my enemies exult over me.

Leader: Make me to know your ways, O Lord;
teach me your paths.

People: Lead me in your truth, and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
for you I wait all day long.

Leader: Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord,
and of your steadfast love,
for they have been from of old.

People: All the paths of the Lord are steadfast love and faithfulness,
for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.

Leader: There are times, Lord, when we lose sight of the light of Your presence in creation and in our lives.

People: Lord have mercy.

Leader: Your light came into the world in Jesus,
shining in the darkness, and it was not overcome;
but we have failed to recognize His presence.

People: Christ have mercy.

Leader: Your Spirit enlightens the whole world
wherever people turn to You; forgive us for our failure to open our lives to Your presence in the Spirit.

People: Lord have mercy.

MISSION MOMENT - Israel/Palestine/Jerusalem

The Presbyterian Peace Fellowship visited Israel and Palestine in January 2014 in an effort to learn from Palestinian and Israeli advocates for peace and an end to the occupation who are committed to nonviolent direct action. Our experience there inspired this poem.

"On Jericho Road"

This road is the center of the universe
Thousands of years, she said,
People from all over the known world have Walked between Jericho and Jerusalem . . .
And now a wall, concrete and nearly five of me high
Even the cracks boarded up so no notes
Might be passed, no word shared,
No smile offered, no connection to be found.
Words on a wall . . .
Ignorance reigns
If only I knew where the key is Civil and human rights, not white privilege
Free Palestine

Here a concrete reminder to work to open mind and heart at all costs

The hands that build can also tear down
 Open 4,000 year old Jericho Road
 And the dirt whispered child, I'm coming home
 The scariest part of a wall
 Is the way that it numbs
 The offensive inures
 Till we no longer remember
 4,000 years of walking together
 On Jericho Road

—Rick Ufford-Chase, executive director, Presbyterian Peace Fellowship
